Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas
USDC No. 4:21-CV-387

ORDER:

- ( ) On December 8, 2022, the clerk provided the Appellant 14 days to correct deficiencies in the record excerpts filed on December 5, 2022. The directed corrections were not made. On December 27, 2022, the clerk provided the Appellant an additional 14 days to correct deficiencies in the record excerpts. The directed corrections were not made. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that the previously filed record excerpts are stricken because they do not comply with the applicable FED. R. APP. P. or 5TH CIR. R., and the clerk is directed to dismiss the appeal for failure to prosecute under 5TH CIR. R. 42.3.

- ( √) On December 8, 2022, the clerk provided the Appellant 14 days to correct deficiencies in the record excerpts filed on December 5, 2022. The directed corrections were not made. On December 27, 2022, the clerk provided the Appellant an additional 14 days to correct deficiencies in the record excerpts. The directed corrections were not made. The Appellant is provided 14 additional days to return sufficient record excerpts. If the Appellant fails to correct the deficiencies and return the record excerpts within the provided time, the clerk is directed to strike the record excerpts and dismiss the appeal for failure to prosecute under 5TH CIR. R. 42.3.
